CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS AND CONSULTANTS

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Abraham & Co., Inc.
Gig Harbor, Washington

We have audited the statement of financial position of Abraham & Co., Inc. as of December 31, 2007, and the related statement of operations, stockholder's equity (deficit), and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2007. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company has determined that it is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, and audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Abraham & Co., Inc. as of December 31, 2007, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2007, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Abraham & Co., Inc., a Washington corporation, is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker/dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company engages in the general retail securities business. It also provides management and administrative services to a related entity. The Company's source of customers is through its sole employee who is also the Company's sole stockholder. The Company has one office located in Gig Harbor, Washington.

All securities transactions, with the exception of concessions transactions, are cleared through another broker/dealer on a fully disclosed basis. The Company does not receive or hold funds of subscribers or securities of issuers, and does not hold customer funds or securities.

Income and Expense Recognition

The Company records income and expense on the accrual basis. Commission revenue and expense, net of clearing fees, are reflected in these financial statements on a trade date basis.

Securities Transactions

The Company has classified all marketable securities as trading securities pursuant to SFAS No. 115 Accounting For Certain Investments In Debt And Equity Securities. As such, all securities are carried at fair market value. Gains or losses are determined using a first-in-first-out valuation methodology. During the year ended December 31, 2007, the Company recorded an unrealized loss of $70 on its marketable securities. The Company also recorded an unrealized loss of $3,750 on its investment in an affiliate company.

Federal Income Taxes

Deferred taxes are provided on a liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax assets are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

During 2007, the Company adopted the provisions of FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109, without material impact to the financial statements.

	2007
Federal:
Current	$ -
Deferred	-
State:
Current	-
Deferred	-
	$ -

The net deferred tax asset consists of the following components at December 31, 2007

	2007
Deferred tax assets:
NOL carryover	$ 1,020
Depreciation	10
Valuation allowance	(1,030)
Net deferred tax asset	$ -

The income tax provision differs from the amount of income tax determined by applying the U.S. federal and state income tax rates of 15% to pretax income from continuing operations for the years ended December 31, 2007 due to the following:

	2007

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers money market mutual funds and all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents for purposes of the statement of cash flows.

Depreciation

Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives of three years.

Receivable from Clearing Organization, Net

Amounts receivable from the Company's clearing organization consist of the net amounts receivable for commissions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 - BASIC LOSS PER SHARE

Basic income per share of common stock were computed by dividing the net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the year. Diluted loss per share is not presented because the Company has not issued any potentially dilutive common shares. The weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the year ended December 31, 2007, was 12,800.

NOTE 3 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2007, the Company had net capital of $20,053, which was $15,053 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000.

NOTE 4 - POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

The Company adheres to the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3 (k)(2)(ii) by sending all funds and securities to the correspondent broker/dealer who carries the customer accounts. Therefore, the Company does not hold or have any possession or control of customer funds or securities

NOTE 5 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The sole shareholder of the Company has a 23 percent ownership interest in, and is president of, another corporation. During the year ended December 31, 2007, the Company earned $18,000 in administrative fees for services provided to this corporation.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL STRUCTURE REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17A-5

The Board of Directors
Abraham & Co., Inc.
Gig Harbor, Washington

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Abraham & Co., Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2007, we considered its internal control structure including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts verifications, and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amount that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted the following matter involving the control procedures that we consider to be a material weakness as defined above. This was considered in determining the nature, timing and extent of the procedures to be performed in our audit of the financial statements of Abraham & Co., Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2007.

One of the basic elements of a satisfactory system of internal control is an organization which provides appropriate segregation of duties. Because of the limited size of the Company, it is not possible for this to be achieved.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2007, to meet the Commission's objectives.

The report is intended solely for the use of the Board of Directors, management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange act of 1934, and should not be used for any other purpose.
